

Wakelyns Agroforestry Open Day 2012

28th June, 10am - 5pm

Wakelyns Agroforestry, Metfield Lane, Fressingfield, Eye,
Suffolk, IP21 5SD

This year: with handicrafts and organic vegetables to buy

Programme

- 10.00 am Arrivals and refreshments
- 10.20 am Welcome (Martin Wolfe)
- 10.30 am Helen Browning, Director of the Soil Association:
The Soil Association's Vision for Organic Farming and a more Sustainable Agriculture
- 11.00 am Nic Lampkin, Director of the Organic Research Centre:
ORC's Vision: the central role of agroecology in developing organic farming systems
- 11.25am Andrew Trump, Organic Arable: The arable market annual round-up
- 11.35pm Coffee break and craft demonstrations
- 12.00pm Farm Tour: agroforestry research and greenwood carving
- 1.15 pm Locally sourced organic lunch
- 2.15 pm Farm Tour: cereals trials, legume trials and agroforestry applications
- 4.00pm Organic tea and cakes
- 4.30pm Bob Crowder, Biological Husbandry Unit of Lincoln University, New Zealand:
Reflections on a journey to the new tomorrow: The organic movement in New Zealand and the practical value of self sufficiency
- 5.00pm Close

Cost: £25 +VAT (£30) pp. Includes lunch and all refreshments.

Please use the booking form (www.organicresearchcentre.com if not attached), or contact Gillian Woodward on 01488 658 298 ext 541, gillian.w@organicresearchcentre.com.

Please make your booking by 18th June 2012.